

JUMPS IN THE CANAL

JOHN FINK, A TAILOR, DROWNED NEAR THE OLD PUMP-HOUSE.

His Mind Had Been Unsettled and He Wandered Off Into the Water—Two Sudden Deaths.

The body of Mr. John M. Fink, who resided at No. 1405 west Leigh street, was found floating in the canal near the old pump-house bridge about half-past 9 o'clock yesterday morning.

As his previous Mr. Peyton Thundley had passed the old gentleman, whom he did not know, walking briskly up the railroad track a few yards above the pump-house fence. The drowned man was discovered by Mr. Henry White, and Doctor Taylor being notified went to the scene and made a careful examination of the body.

There were no marks on it that would indicate foul play. The clothing of the deceased was very comfortable, and in the pockets were found a cent, a pocket watch, a tailor's thumb, shoe-horn, finch, and a pair of spectacles. There was an address, however, of any person to indicate the name or residence of the unfortunate man, and the coroner ordered the remains to be sent to the coroner's morgue to await identification.

THE BODY IDENTIFIED.

It was not until after 9 o'clock last night that the body was identified as that of Mr. Fink. A. J. White, a policeman, who was called at the station-house and asked Sergeant Thomas if he had seen or heard anything of Mr. Fink, stated that he had wandered away from his home early in the morning and had not returned. Their description of the missing person was that of a man about 40 years of age, of medium build, with a mustache, and a double row of combs placed in the center. In the rear of the building are the pigeon coops.

Mr. E. J. Zachary, the superintendent of the hall, deserves much credit for the careful and artistic way he has arranged everything. Captain J. W. Bush, the president of the association, is also on hand, and is all attention to both exhibitors and visitors. Captain Bush is a double row of combs placed in the center. In the rear of the building are the pigeon coops.

THIS MIND UNSETTLED.

It seems to be no question that Mr. Fink committed suicide. For some time his mind had been a little unbalanced, and on several occasions recently he threatened self-destruction. It was not more than ten days ago he told a lady that he thought the best way to end his troubles would be to jump into the river. The troubles to which he alluded were entirely imaginary. His family relations were entirely pleasant.

Mr. Fink was a tailor by trade, and for a long time carried on business on Pearl street near Madison. He was about 40 years of age, and leaves a wife and several children.

Mr. Coghill Drops Dead.

Mr. W. T. Coghill, a carriage-painter who resided at No. 815 north Twenty-third street, dropped dead at his home about 10 o'clock yesterday morning. He was 50 years of age, and was apparently well yesterday. Mr. Coghill was a father-in-law, and was married to a woman who was 20 years of age, and was estimated by all who knew him. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Young Man Summoned Last Night and Viewed the Remains.

Death resulted from heart-disease, and he was taken to the morgue.

A CHILD'S SUDDEN DEATH.

The ten-month-old child of Mrs. Niley, of south Pine street, was found dead yesterday morning. Coroner Taylor
